

IRISH BLESSING

*May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.
May God be with you and bless you:
May you see your children's children.
May you be poor in misfortune,
Rich in blessings.
May you know nothing but happiness
From this day forward.
May the road rise up to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the warm rays of sun fall upon your home
And may the hand of a friend always be near.
May green be the grass you walk on,
May blue be the skies above you,
May pure be the joys that surround you,
May true be the hearts that love you*

Sally was an infectious, “fun loving” spirit who fiercely embraced life! With her sense of adventure, determination, resilience, & creativity, she dearly “Gifted” those who knew and loved her. Sally graduated from University of Wisconsin - Madison where she met her husband, Richard E. Kolian of Oak Park, Illinois. They married in 1960 and settled in the Minneapolis area to raise their family.

With her children fully grown, a telephone, and the white pages, Sally started her own franchise business Express Employment Professionals.

As a heart centered leader, with an ambition to succeed; she achieved the Circle of Excellence Award 8 out of 10 years, providing thousands of jobs to people in the Metropolitan area. In retirement, Sally became the owner and primary caretaker of her family’s 40-acre estate for 20 years in Green Lake, Wisconsin.

Sally was passionate about trees. She planted and cared for hundreds of trees for beauty, conservation, and posterity; ensuring the enjoyment of these treasures for generations to come. Sally gifted her family friends and grandchildren with abundant timeless memories at both her cottage on Green Lake, and at her condo in Naples.

Sally our mother, our heroine, was forever calling us to be the best version of ourselves and to life’s next big adventure!
