WHAT'S IN OUR CHURCH

The ALTAR is the focal point of the gathered Community at holy Mass. Though Jesus is always in the Tabernacle, when we celebrate the holy sacrifice of the Mass, we keep looking at the priest and the altar. It is on this altar where Christ is immolated in an unbloody manner. (We don't re-crucify our LORD, but by the words of the priest we are transported back to the time of Jesus. So we are with him in His ministry, passion and death. It is also this altar where you and I offer ourselves in union with Jesus, as victims for the salvation of the world.

THE RESURRECTION by M.S.Lowndes

We hold so close to our hearts
 The cross where Jesus died,
 But so much more than the blood-stained cross
 Is that Jesus came back to life.
 The stone's been rolled away;
 The tomb lay open and bare —
 They looked for Him, and then the angel said
 That He is no longer here.
 Oh what joy they must have felt
 To see Him just once more,
 To eat with Him, to drink with Him,
 To receive Him back as Lord.
 So much did He accomplish
 Through His death upon the cross
 And in His rising from the dead,
 He reconciled us back to God
 Nothing else could bridge the gap.
 That sin had wrenched apart —
 Now we can freely go to God
 And receive Christ in our hearts.

Am a PRIEST, have a CAR, will TRAVEL...

This is an invitation to you - despite all the rigamaroo about health and such, I'll be happy to visit you. Just give me a jingle and I'll be ringing your door bell! Looking forward to hear from you and see your face again!

HOLY ROSARY

From Satanist to Saint: Bl. Bartolo Longo

He was soon directed to a group of poor and neglected persons living on the outskirts of the ancient buried city of Pompeii. There he began his life's work, teaching catechism and caring for orphans. To these duties was eventually added the founding of the "New Pompeii."

One day he fell into despair and nearly committed suicide. The Devil had brought to his mind the thought that since the priesthood of Christ is forever, so might be the satanic priesthood. Fortunately, Bartolo remembered some words of his Dominican friend, quoting Our Lady: "One who propagates my Rosary shall be saved." He resolved that whatever time remained to him on earth, he would spend it spreading this devotion.

His first step was to establish the Rosary Confraternity among the poor with whom he worked. The local bishop advised him to build a church for the Confraternity, but observed that he would first need an image of Our Lady of the Rosary. The only picture Bartolo could obtain was an old, dirty and cracked painting. It was eventually restored, and in 1876 the cornerstone of the church was laid.

In 1901, Pope St. Pius X elevated the shrine to the rank of a Pontifical Basilica. It became a place of pilgrimage, visited by over a million persons a year and with many miracles worked through the now famous image of Our Lady of Pompeii.

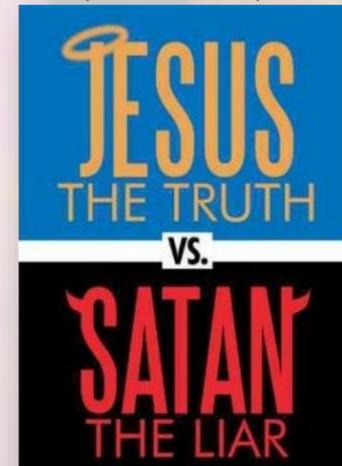

HAPPY EASTER!

Has anyone NOT played Tug-Of-War when little? We might also have tried our strength by arm wrestling? We all had games like that in our youth - and even now as adults we still compete! These competitions are games adults play, with the purpose to show one's strength and be a winner! We all like winning - that's why Vegas is so attractive - we all win something, sometime. Not enough to make up for the total amount of money lost there, but we heard the coins falling into the container below the slot machines and we knew we won.

In games and in real life, there can only be one winner (or a group of people as an entity). Right now it seems that politics is the game of choice and only the most ruthless of players seem to be on top. But all this winning or losing in this world is really nothing, does not count as anything - and why? Because this is not the question that our heavenly Father will ask us when we come to our judgment, at the eternal portals of heaven.

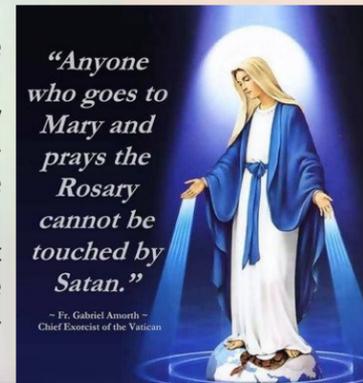

Looking at Jesus on the cross, many believe that JESUS lost. Of course Satan knows the truth, and since it is truth and he is a liar, he hates it and then fights it with a vengeance and a hatred for GOD and GOD's army that is unparalleled. His strategy is to switch things around, make likes truth and truth lies, and he makes this known over the globe. We have come to the point where we do not know the truth any longer - we are caught in the web that prevents us from seeing our GOD. All those baptized have been given the grace and ability to break through this web, untangle themselves, and see the face of GOD. But many will not be able to, because they are caught up in this world, have been lied to and they believe these lies. And they are an easy prey, mostly, because they have given up the only weapon that we have: prayer. Faith and the prayers that we are saying because of our faith, this is what will bring divine assistance to us and helps us see. Of course this will mean that we have to let go of what we want and desire, regarding earthly goods.

We are not here to win the tug-of-war, but to fight for our eternal salvation. We will be victorious, when we let go of this world and cling to the Risen LORD JESUS. He has shown us that by dying, we will have new life. This happens by letting others win this world and all it holds dear to them, while we embrace Christ Jesus and the things of heaven.

This is easier said than done though. Who has not experienced the tiredness after a long day of work and we much rather would sit and watch mind numbing TV over a Rosary with the family where the kids are often unwilling or sluggish to say the prayers that the Queen of Heaven has given to us as a remedy, as a most powerful armor against hell, which destroys vice, delivers one from sin and dispels heresy. Knowing it to be the better thing to do and yet skipping the Rosary in favor of mind numbing TV - at the end we will have to tell our good LORD at the judgment seat, that this was the better choice, because...?!
 "Anyone who goes to Mary and prays the Rosary cannot be touched by Satan."
 - Fr. Gabriel Amorth - Chief Exorcist of the Vatican

For now, we are still on our journey towards our eternal life, and this is the reason for my exhortation: Because we are on the journey, we can still chose the good over the bad, we can still pick up our crosses and help Jesus carry His cross, like Simon of Cyrene. At first the cross is awkward and not to our liking, but when we see Jesus who carries the whole weight of the world on His shoulders, we learn to love this man - this GOD and what He has done for us. The more we love, the more we will help carry this cross - which in our time means to turn off the TV for 20 minutes and pray the Rosary with our families. There can be numerous similar examples that offer themselves throughout the day.

The cross will end not in death, but in new LIFE. A life that words cannot describe, an eternal life. We now live in the joy of the Resurrection, even while we still carry the cross in this world. But be of good cheer - the war was already won, we just have to chose to be on the team that has been promised to win:

JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD

GO JESUS!
